UNIT LEADERS HAIL FRONTIER ROUNDUP PLAN

CAMPOREE DATES NEAR

Kent W. Duncan, chairman of the Coordinated Camporee, reported at the Executive Board Meeting of the Chicago Area Council that, "As a result of our recent meeting, we fully expect more than 10,000 Scouts to participate . . . The most important single aspect of the Camporee is that the entire program is built around the patrol method."

Kent W. Duncan

The October 9, 10 and 11 Camporee is scheduled to be held in four locations: Schiller Woods for Area A, Yorkville Scout Camp for Area B, Camp Crete for Area C, and Camp Kiwanis for Area D.

DEN MOTHERS' TV WORKSHOP POSTPONED

The Den Mothers' TV Workshop originally scheduled for October has been postponed by WTTW-Channel 11. According to program director Chuck Marquis, WTTW-TV is hopeful that the series can be run early in 1965.

GROWTH PROGRAM GOAL—200 NEW UNITS

The Third Annual Growth Program will have its official kickoff on October 7 at a mass meeting of institutional heads, potential new unit committeemen, and Scout volunteers. The affair will be held in McCormick Place at 7:45 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to have all participating institutions set the target date for having their units organized, committees trained and boys registered.

Hundreds of civic leaders in the Chicago area have completed plans to make Scouting available to even more boys by participating in the council's "Years of Decision" Growth Program.

District Growth Program Chairmen Named

Serving on the committee as district Growth Program chairmen are: Fort Dearborn, Melvin B. Bates; Midwest, David Ross, Sr.; Lincoln Park, Miles Kuckuk; Pioneer Trails, Zygmunt Sokolnicki; Thunderbird, Arthur A. Telser; Trailblazer, Hughes C. Hopewell, Jr.; Arrowhead, George Hay; Austin, William L. Hall, Jr.; Frontier, Eugene Delaroy; Indian Boundary, T. Ronald Herbert; Pathfinder, John J. Barbino; Portage, Lowell Peterson; Calumet, Gerry Polarek; Greater Roseland, Robert F. Thompson; Lake Shore, Emmanuel Duncan; South Central, Walter Parrish; South Shore, Edmund V. Boland; Tri-Ridge, John Zander; Washington Park, Riley Beason; Burr Oak, Robert Jaderholm; Cicero, Dale Sharp; Forest, Eugene Daley; Southtown, Leon Benford; Southwest, John Vivoda and Walter Kiltz; Stockyard, Duke Vemich.

'FIND ADVENTURE—JOIN THE SCOUTS' THEME FOR ROUNDUP

The picture above will be the art theme of the 1964 fall Roundup. Within a week you will be seeing it on posters in subways and on school bulletin boards. It was developed by the public relations task force for the Roundup.

A highlight of the council's program this fall is the Frontier Roundup, with the slogan, "Find Adventure—Join The Scouts."

An important part of this month's Roundup program is for your unit to encourage boys to join by distributing Roundup posters to schools and churches in your neighborhood and by encouraging your sponsoring institution to carry a news article in their bulletin, inviting boys to join.

According to Philip H. Schaff, Jr., chairman of the Roundup Committee, the public relations support on radio, television, newspaper, and in transit displays will move into high gear this month. In the final analysis, however, it is up to the unit leader to encourage his boys to bring their friends to a unit meeting.

TRAINING CENTER A BUSY PLACE

Valley View Training Center, the property of the Chicago Area Council in Hinsdale, has been a busy place in recent months. Following the Showando and Wood Badge, held in the summer, have been a number of district Junior Leader Training courses, outdoor training sessions for Boy Scout leaders, Scout Executive Staff Conferences, troop committee meetings, district roundtables, Commissioners' training courses, and district meetings.

Valley View Training Center is available for all types of training and planning sessions for units and districts, as well as for council activities.

To get the best camp site for your unit next summer and so that you and your boys may be pictured here, attend the camp sign-up meeting, October 14.

The 1965 camping season will get an early start on October 14, at the Valley View Training Center, 6240 South County Line Road, Hinsdale, when the camping committee will premiere "Troop Camping at Owassippe," a new filmstrip describing the entire Owassippe operation. Each unit attending the meeting, which starts at 7:30 p.m., will receive a camp kit for use throughout the year.

Council Camping Chairman W. R. Blew and John Crown, Chairman of the Long-term Camping Subcommittee, will give leadership to a discussion of the preparation that must be made to attend camp in 1965.

District camping chairmen will serve as hosts and, concluding the meeting, Scoutmasters or their representatives will have the opportunity to reserve camp sites for the period of their choice. A $20.00 fee is required to make a firm reservation.

OPERATION PATRICK HENRY

The sixth annual Operation Patrick Henry will be held on November 28 and December 5. Henry A. Preston is chairman of annual public speaking activity.

Each unit should hold its own "Patrick Henry" and the Scouts best qualified should become the unit's representatives.

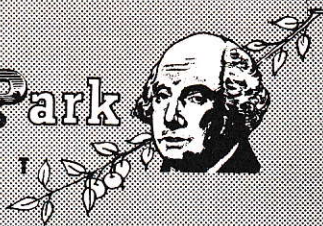

The registration card for Operation Patrick Henry can be found in the program notebook. Unit leaders should record the names, addresses and ages of their unit representatives on this card and mail it to the Council Service Center.

COUNCIL OPEN HOUSE

October 21, 1964 is the open house date for our district. The Service Center will be open from 4 to 9:00 p.m. on this date. The schedule has been made so that individuals who wish to visit on their way home, will be able to complete the tour and be home in time for dinner or for those who prefer to visit after dinner. The purpose of this open house program is twofold: 1) to show the facilities of the Service Center; and 2) to meet, on a personal basis, the members of the Executive Board, who will serve as guides.

If you have one-half hour or two hours, you will be welcome at the open house. The Council Service Center is located at 300 W. Adams, 9th floor, (near Franklin Street).

ing adventures of the year. The coordinated camporee has been organized to help boys get quality Scouting. If you have not turned in your unit's registration, please do so to keep this great Scouting opportunity from slipping through your fingers. For information call James Wright, WA 8-9873; Albert Broberg, CO 4-8110; or Mike Chy, 445-8726.

GIVE A BOY A CHANCE

Several units have already registered new boys for the roundup. There are hundreds of boys in Roseland who want to be Scouts, but are not because no one has asked them. Yet, if a Scout in your unit simply would say to one of his friends, "Come on with me to the Scout meeting tonight," he could open a door to unforgettable adventure and enjoyment that would last a lifetime. GIVE A BOY A CHANCE. Help these boys become Scouts. Don't let them down.

LOOKING AHEAD

A successful season of summer camping has come to a close, but another one is just around the corner. Camping is an integral part of Scouting, so put a large circle around October 14 in your date book. That is the date of the 1965 Camp Promotion session at Valley View Training Center. You seldom have to sell a boy on going to camp, but it is a great advantage to be able to answer some of his questions. This is an event you won't want to miss.

REGISTER NOW!—Use the form on this page. Check the date you will attend! Advance registrations are a must—deadlines are November 13 and November 27.

NATIONAL SUPPLY SERVICE will again operate a Trading Post well stocked with Cub literature and program material for your convenience.

WONDERING what to bring besides yourself? Well, every pack should bring an exhibit. Here's an opportunity for you to display the achievements of Cub Scouts and to get ideas from other packs. Select a theme from the 1964-65 Cub Leaders' Program Notebook or just dream up your own.

A WORD OF CAUTION—Bring only a few items—don't overcrowd your display. Let's emphasize boy-made items again this year. You will want to be sure to include a sign showing your pack number and your institution.

REMEMBER—This year to register as an individual, not as a pack. Each Den Mother, Cubmaster or committeeman sends his or her own registration to the council office. A registration form is needed for each individual attending.

UNIFORM—Den Mother uniforms will be in vogue and Cub leaders in field service uniforms will also be properly dressed. Pack committeemen and other interested Scouters will feel at home in casual clothes.

ALONG THE SCOUTING TRAIL

By Alden G. Barber

Last summer at Owasippe more than 30 Scouts and Leaders received the Vigil Honor of the Order of the Arrow—an event which in my opinion attracted insufficient Council-wide attention.

More of us should be aware of the fine work of the Order of the Arrow and its relationship to the Council. Its Motto — "Cheerful Service" — indicates its motivation. Its Indian symbolism adds to it camping and the out-of-doors.

To belong a boy must be active in his unit, and must be elected by his brother Scouts who are not already members. His selection by ballot is related to his Scout spirit and his daily practice of the Oath and Law.

The Vigil represents the highest degree of Cheerful Service. Therefore, a Scout salute to those most recently honored, and to the Owasippe Lodge.

CAMPMASTER PROGRAM IN FULL SWING

The highly successful Campmaster Corps Plan which went into operation last year at our near-in camps has been reinstated for the fall, winter and spring months of 1964-65.

The purpose of the plan is to provide units with the necessary program advancement and service opportunities needed for a successful experience.

The Campmaster Corps is comprised of several adult Scouters who, each weekend, together with four or five experienced senior Scouts, make themselves available to units desiring help in program and advancement areas.

They are especially helpful to inexperienced Scoutmasters and are willing to work very closely with units in fulfilling any program gaps which may occur.
